1.0 Policy Statement

- 1.1 Beckfoot Trust is committed to providing high quality teaching and learning for our pupils. We recognise that by valuing and promoting equal opportunities in employment for all employees and job applicants and avoiding unlawful discrimination in employment and delivery of services, we will be able to deliver first class education and value the differences workforce brings to the Trust.
- 1.2 We aim to create a working environment in which all individuals are able to make best use of their skills, free from discrimination or harassment. We also value diversity and recognise the varied contributions that a diverse workforce brings to an organisation; we are committed to drawing on different perspectives and experiences of individuals which will add value to what we do.
- 1.3 We will ensure that we do not discriminate against our staff on the basis of a protected characteristic such as (age, disability, gender reassignment, marital or civil partner status, pregnancy or maternity, race including colour, nationality, ethnic / national origin, religion or belief, sex, or sexual orientation) or any other basis.
- 1.4 The principles of non-discrimination also apply to how we expect our staff to treat colleagues, pupils, parents and carers, visitors, clients, customers, suppliers and former staff regardless of whether the legal protection of having a protected characteristic applies.
- 1.5 This policy complies with the requirements of the Equality Act 2010. Under the general public sector equality duty of the Equality Act 2010, our Trust must have due regard to the need to:
 - Eliminate discrimination, harassment and victimisation
 - Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not
 - Set diversity objectives
 - Identify a senior level champion for leading the diversity strategy
 - Secure top-level ownership and sponsorship
 - Develop and cascade a diversity vision statement
 - Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not.
- 1.6 The duty covers the protected characteristics of race, disability, sex, age, sexual orientation, religion or belief, pregnancy and maternity, gender reassignment, gender definition, intersex and non-binary. The first part of the duty - the duty to eliminate discrimination, harassment and victimisation - also applies to the protected characteristic of marriage and civil partnership. We will also publish gender pay gap and ethnicity-based pay gap reporting.
- 1.6 As part of the application of this policy, the Beckfoot Trust may collect, process and store personal data and special categories of data in accordance with our data protection policy. We will comply with the requirements of Data Protection Legislation (being the UK General Data Protection Regulation and Data Protection Act 2018) and any implementing laws, regulations and secondary legislation, as amended or updated from time to time, in relation to how we collect, hold and share personal data.
- 1.7 This policy has been implemented following consultation with the Trade Unions and the EDI Steering Group and has been formally adopted by the Trust Board. This policy does not form part of any employee's contract of employment and may be amended at any time.

2.0 Scope and Purpose

- 2.1 This policy covers all individuals working at all levels and grades in the Trust, including trustees, governors, consultants, contractors, trainees, part-time and fixed-term employees, volunteers, casual workers and agency staff (collectively referred to as employees in this policy).
- 2.2 This policy applies to all aspects of the employment relationship and covers job advertisements, recruitment and selection, training and development, opportunities for promotion, appraisals, conditions of service, pay and benefits, conduct at work, disciplinary and grievance procedures, and termination of employment. It also applies to former employees, for example in the provision of employment references. This policy focuses on employment and does not cover the provision of services to our pupils.
- 2.3 The purpose of this policy is to set out our approach to equal opportunities, how we will tackle discrimination and how we will put our commitment into action and comply with the law, to ensure that equality and diversity is promoted in the workplace and our employees are not subject to and do not commit unlawful acts of discrimination.

3.0 Overarching Principles

- 3.1 Discrimination by or against an employee is prohibited unless there is a specific legal exemption. Discrimination may be direct or indirect and it may occur intentionally or unintentionally.
- 3.2 Direct discrimination occurs where someone is treated less favourably because of one or more of the protected characteristics as set out above. For example, rejecting a job applicant because of their religious views or because they might be gay.

In limited circumstances, employers can directly discriminate against an individual for a reason related to any of the protected characteristics where there is an occupational requirement. The occupational requirement must be crucial to the post and a proportionate means of achieving a legitimate aim. The occupational requirement will only apply in exceptional circumstances in our Trust and will need to be discussed and agreed with the Chief Operating Officer before the job is advertised.

- 3.3 Indirect discrimination occurs where someone is disadvantaged by a provision, criterion or practice that applies to everyone but puts people with a protected characteristic at a particular disadvantage. Such a requirement will need to be objectively justified. For example, requiring a job to be done full-time rather than part-time could adversely affect women because they generally have greater childcare commitments than men. Such a requirement would be discriminatory unless it can be objectively justified.
- 3.4 Harassment related to any of the protected characteristics is prohibited. Harassment is unwanted conduct that has the purpose or effect of violating someone's dignity, or creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment for them. Pregnancy and maternity, and marriage and civil partnership are not protected directly under the harassment provisions. However, pregnancy and maternity harassment would amount to harassment related to sex, and harassment related to civil partnership would amount to harassment related to sexual orientation. Harassment is dealt with further in our Anti-Bullying and Harassment Policy and in our Preventing Sexual Harassment at Work Policy.

- 3.5 The law protects employees, workers, contractors, self-employed staff, apprentices, those undertaking vocational training, volunteers, former workers and job applicants from sexual harassment and Beckfoot Trust has a duty to take reasonable steps to prevent sexual harassment of its staff at work.
- 3.5.1 Examples of sexual harassment include, but are not limited to:
- Flirting, gesturing, making sexual remarks about someone's appearance in any means of communication
 - Asking questions about someone's sex life
 - Telling sexually offensive jokes/pranks and or sharing pornographic or sexual images
 - Unwanted touching, kissing or assault
- 3.5.2 To report an incident of sexual harassment or to raise a concern staff should speak to their Line Manager, the HR Manager, a Cluster Business Manager or the Risk and Compliance Manager. Please refer to the Preventing Sexual Harassment at Work Policy for details of how Beckfoot Trust responds to a report of sexual harassment.
- 3.6 Victimisation is also prohibited. This is less favourable treatment of someone who has complained or given information about discrimination or harassment or supported someone else's complaint.
- 3.7 Discrimination by association is where an individual is directly discriminated against or harassed for association with another individual who has a protected characteristic.
- 3.8 Discrimination by perception is where an individual is directly discriminated against or harassed based on a perception that a person has a particular protected characteristic irrespective of whether they do have that protected characteristic (this does not include marriage and civil partnership and pregnancy and maternity).
- 3.9 Third-party harassment occurs where an employee is harassed and the harassment is related to a protected characteristic (other than marriage and civil partnership, and pregnancy and maternity), by third parties such as parents and carers, clients or customers.
- 3.10 Part-time and fixed-term staff should be treated the same as comparable full-time or permanent staff and enjoy no less favourable terms and conditions.

4.0 Responsibilities and Arrangements

4.1 Roles and responsibilities

- 4.1.1 Our Trust Board has overall responsibility for the effective operation of this policy and for ensuring compliance with equality legislation. Day-to-day operational responsibility for this policy has been delegated to the school Senior Leadership Teams and Executive Leadership Team.
- 4.1.2 All senior leaders must ensure their behaviour is in line with our Code of Conduct and all trust policies. All staff complete EDI training as part of their induction programme. Headteachers and Executive Leaders have unconscious bias training. The EDI Steering Group provides regular updates and training on all aspects of equality.
- 4.1.3 All employees must be aware of this policy and have a duty to act in accordance with this policy and not to discriminate against or harass other people including employees, former employees and job applicants treating them with dignity at all times. This also applies on work-related trips or events including social events. They should also apply this to how they treat members of the public in the provision of services and should support the Trust in meeting its commitment to provide equal opportunities for all and promoting diversity in the workplace.

- 4.1.4 Our Trust constantly considers ways of making our workplace more inclusive, for example, where possible, when planning the calendar, considering if holidays can be aligned to religious and other festivals and providing accommodation for prayer, meditation and reflection.
- 4.1.5 If you are involved in management, recruitment or training, or if you have any questions about the content or application of this policy, you should contact the Head of Advisory HR to request training or further information.
- 4.1.6 Staff are invited to comment on this policy and suggest ways in which it might be improved by contacting the Head of Advisory HR or the EDI Lead Champion.

4.2 Applying our policy to recruitment and selection

- 4.2.1 We aim to ensure that no job applicant suffers discrimination because of any of the protected characteristics. Our recruitment procedures are reviewed regularly to ensure that individuals are assessed on the basis of their relevant skills and abilities. All applicants will be provided with a copy of our Recruitment Privacy Notice which sets out how we will gather, process and hold personal data of individuals during the recruitment process. Our recruitment processes are set out in our Recruitment and Selection Policy.
- 4.2.2 Job selection criteria as set out in the person specification will be regularly reviewed to ensure relevance to the job.
- 4.2.3 Shortlisting of applicants and interview panels will, where possible, include at least three persons, including (a) female and (b) ethnic minority and carried out objectively against the requirements of the job person specification.
- 4.2.4 Job advertisements should avoid stereotyping or using wording that may discourage groups with a particular protected characteristic from applying.
- 4.2.5 We will take reasonable steps, where appropriate, to ensure that our vacancies are advertised to a diverse labour market and, where relevant, to groups that have been identified as disadvantaged or underrepresented in our Trust.
- 4.2.6 Applicants will not be asked about health or disability before a job offer is made, other than where it is necessary to:
 - Establish if an applicant can perform an intrinsic part of the job (subject to any reasonable adjustments);
 - Establish if any reasonable adjustments need to be made to enable an applicant to have a fair interview or assessment; and
 - Carry out equal opportunities monitoring (which will not form part of the decision-making process).

Job offers will be conditional upon a satisfactory medical check in accordance with our obligation under Keeping Children Safe in Education, where a school must verify the candidate's mental and physical fitness to carry out their work responsibilities in accordance with the Education (Health Standards) (England) Regulations 2003.

- 4.2.7 At least one member of the shortlisting panel and interview panel will have safer recruitment and unconscious bias in recruitment training.

- 4.2.8 Applicants will not be asked about past or current pregnancy or future intentions related to pregnancy. Applicants will not be asked about matters which may suggest an intention to discriminate on ground of a protected characteristic.
- 4.2.9 We are required by law to ensure that all employees are entitled to work in the UK. Assumptions about immigration status should not be made based on appearance, name or apparent nationality. All prospective employees, regardless of nationality, must be able to produce original specified documents before employment starts to satisfy current immigration legislation. The list of acceptable documents is available from Human Resources.
- 4.2.10 To ensure that this policy is operating effectively, and to identify groups that may be underrepresented or disadvantaged in our Trust and in our individual schools, we monitor diversity data as part of the recruitment process and as set out in our Data Protection Policy. Provision of this information is voluntary, and it will not adversely affect an individual's success at recruitment, or any other decision related to their employment. The information is removed from applications before short listing and kept in an anonymised format solely for the purposes stated in this policy. Analysing this data helps us take appropriate steps to avoid discrimination and improve equality and diversity.

4.3 Applying our policy to training, promotion, pay decisions and conditions of service

- 4.3.1 All employees will be provided with a copy of our Data Protection policy which sets out how we will collect, hold, and share personal data of individuals during their employment.
- 4.3.2 Employee training needs will be identified through the appraisal process. All employees will be given appropriate access to training for their job and to enable them to progress within the organisation.
- 4.3.3 Pay and promotion decisions will be based on an employee's performance (where relevant), skills and experience and as detailed in our Pay Policy.
- 4.3.4 Our benefits and facilities are reviewed regularly to ensure that they are available to all employees who should have access to them and that there are no unlawful obstacles to accessing them.
- 4.3.5 Relevant national and local conditions of service within our Trust, as applied to our employees, will meet the requirements of equal opportunities.

4.4 Applying our policy when terminating employment

- 4.4.1 We will ensure that redundancy criteria and procedures are fair and objective and are not directly or indirectly discriminatory.
- 4.4.2 We will also ensure that disciplinary procedures and sanctions are applied without discrimination, whether they result in disciplinary warnings, dismissal, or other disciplinary action.

4.5 Disability discrimination

- 4.5.1 Disability discrimination includes direct or indirect discrimination, any unjustified less favourable treatment because of the effects of a disability, and failure to make reasonable adjustments to alleviate the effects caused by a disability.
- 4.5.2 If you are disabled or become disabled, we encourage you to tell us about your condition so that we can support you as appropriate.

- 4.5.3 If you experience difficulties at work because of your disability, you may wish to contact your line manager or Human Resources to discuss any reasonable adjustments that would help overcome or minimise the difficulty. Your line manager or Human Resources may wish to consult with you and your medical adviser(s) about possible adjustments. We will consider the matter carefully and try to accommodate your needs within reason. If we consider a particular adjustment would not be reasonable, we will explain our reasons and try to find an alternative solution where possible.
- 4.5.4 We will monitor the physical features of our premises to consider whether they place disabled employees or job applicants at a substantial disadvantage compared to other employees. Where reasonable, we will take steps to improve access for employees who have a disability.
- 4.5.5 We are committed to inclusivity and accessibility. We guarantee to interview a disabled applicant, provided they meet the minimum criteria for the job. This applies to all internal and external vacancies.

4.6 Breaches of this policy

- 4.6.1 If you believe that you may have been discriminated against you are encouraged to raise the matter through our Grievance Procedure. If you believe that you may have been subject to harassment you are encouraged to raise the matter through our Anti-Bullying and Harassment Policy. If you are uncertain which policy applies or need advice on how to proceed you should speak to your HR team.
- 4.6.2 Allegations regarding potential breaches of this policy will be treated in confidence and investigated in accordance with the relevant procedure. Employees who make such allegations in good faith will not be victimised or treated less favourably as a result. False allegations which are found to have been made in bad faith will, however, be dealt with under our Disciplinary Procedure.
- 4.6.3 Any member of staff who is found to have committed an act of discrimination or harassment will be subject to disciplinary action. Such behaviour may constitute gross misconduct and, as such, may result in summary dismissal. We take a strict approach to serious breaches of this policy.

5.0 Review of Policy

- 5.1 This policy is reviewed annually, and any significant changes will be consulted with the EDI Steering Group and the unions. We will monitor the application and outcomes of this policy to ensure it is working effectively.
